

ROOFERS

Oregon-Columbia Roofers JATC

Applicant Name: _____

Date: _____

Points are awarded at time of application when written documentation is submitted for any of the following:

	Max Points	Applicant Points
Valid Photo ID +1, Valid Class C Drivers License +10, or Unrestricted Class A or B CDL License +5	15
Basic Education: High School Diploma +10 or GED +5	10
Higher Education: AAS or higher degree (any discipline)	10
Military: Honorable or General discharge under honorable conditions (DD214) + 5 points per year	20
CTE, Certifications or Vocational Training: math, industrial education, shop, drafting, architecture, building construction, reading comprehension, construction or trade specific classes such as Blueprint, Hand & Power Tools, Safety, OSHA, Carpentry, Layout, Project Management, Welding, Shop, Fall Protection, Forklift, Flagging, Estimating, Confined Space, welding, PE, participation on a high school or adult league sports team, work keys (2 points each)	20
Completion of BOLI approved pre-apprenticeship (with certificate of completion)	10
Work Experience with a current roofer training agent - +10 per 1000 OJT (company letterhead)	30
Letter of Recommendation: Current training agent	15
Letters of Recommendation: Any previous employers that speak to job performance, length of time, and work ethic +5 each	10
Volunteer Documentation: Americorp, Peace Corp, Haitat for Humanity, etc. +5 each	5
RERANKING ONLY: Jump Start Experience: perfect attendance	5
SUB-TOTAL	150
Interview Score Interview Date: _____	50
GRAND TOTAL	200

The goal of this ranked method of selection is intended to bring the program the apprentices that are the most qualified and the most likely to complete to journeyman.

Official Use Only
Scored by: _____	Date: _____
Scored by: _____	Date: _____